Radford is the 30th largest city in Virginia. Even though it's nowhere near the largest city in Virginia, there are still many amazing restaurants available to students, residents, and visitors.

Here is a list of some of the best restaurants in Radford:

Radford Coffee Company

Radford Coffee Company, or RCC, may technically be a coffee shop, but they also have amazing food. Along with their drinks, such as coffees, smoothies, and shakes, RCC serves paninis, traditional breakfast foods, wraps, and salads.

Additionally, Radford Coffee Company not only serves the New River with delicious coffee and food, but they also serve the Coconut River.

According to their website, RCC is involved with Project Ezra, which helps in educating children in Nicaragua. Their website also states that they are involved with community projects located within the New River Valley.

Aside from their delicious options, Golden Bowl offers a unique dessert; rolled ice cream. Golden Bowl makes several different flavors of this treat fresh daily.

BT's

BT's has become a favorite among Radford University students for multiple reasons. The restaurant is a very short walk from campus, making it easier for students to get to the restaurant.

This full-service restaurant offers entrees ranging from soups, salads, burgers, sirloin, and sandwiches. On the weekends, BT's also has a brunch menu including items, such as omelets and pancakes.

BT's doubles as a bar and has a late-night menu, along with an excellent atmosphere for a weekend night hang out.

Finally, Brick House Pizza provides wood-fired pizza made from handmade dough, made daily. The pizzeria serves their pizza garnished with many different vegetables and other toppings.

Along with their pizza, Brick House Pizza serves wings. The hot sauce that covers these wings are also handmade in the restaurant. Brick House Pizza's wings are also cooked in their wood oven.
